

Welcome to the University of Southampton

We hope you enjoy your visit.

Travel by Rail to the University Campus

Southampton has two main train stations:

Southampton Central; located in the city centre

Southampton Airport Parkway; located outside of the city next to the airport and Parkway train station

Train times can be found at:

www.nationalrail.co.uk Telephone - 08457 48 49 50
www.thetrainline.com Telephone - 0871 244 1545

These stations are approximately 2½ -3 miles from the University of Southampton, so you will need to use public transport to get to the campus.

Your Onward Journey:

By Bus:

The Uni-link bus service runs from the train station and Southampton Airport to the main Highfield Campus (please visit their website for timetables and locations www.unilinkbus.co.uk)

By Taxi

Local Taxi's also operate outside the train stations.

Travel time approximately 10 –15 minutes from the University of Southampton.
Charge approximately £10.00 - £15.00

You don't usually need to pre-book taxi's but if you want to book - here are a couple of numbers you may like to try:
